

Halloween is super scary!

It was Halloween night
And I got such a fright with the zombies
And cats and rats
Mummies and monsters
And spider and scarecrows
and rows and row of bats.
Boys and girls, back hairs were sticking up from being scared.
I saw a man dressed as a creeper
And a mutant reaper I heard
Fireworks go crash and bang
Rainbow colours fill my eye
I saw a skeleton shoot a bow and arrow across the dark blue sky
I dressed up as a purple troll and all the candy fell out of my bowl souls and ghosts flew through the sky.
The werewolves like to howl.
Little children trick or treat and if someone knows one they might give them juicy sweets.
They say zombies will eat your feet
Mummies bandage all round town spider webs on skyscrapers.
Pumpkins light up the dark blue sky and guess what I can see out of the my eye?
I see a red balloon in the sky
Oh no its Pennywise!

Autumn Winds

Hedgehogs rustle through the grass
Leaves fall on the ground
Shivers down spines
Winds blow
Fireworks shoot up
Bonfires spark
Cold winds blow
Sheep huddle under wool
Food is harvested in Autumn
Apples fall
Sweets are collected
Halloween and the moon beams glow
Bats flap through the night
Badgers hibernate in hollow logs
Owls fly
Black cats blend into the night
Cold winds whistle
In autumn.

I know a mermaid

I know a mermaid called

Stephanie. She loves

Swimming,

Sports,

Winning

And she loves doing

Tricks in the sea

But most of all she

Always

Loves

Seeing

Me.

In the Animal Cinema

In the cinema there were one million cats watching funny cat videos in the cat room,

There were Cheetahs in the cheetah room watching cheetahs chasing other Cheetahs,

In the penguin room penguins were watching other penguins sliding on their tummies,

In the dolphin room Dolphins were watching other Dolphins jump in and out of water,

In the monkey room monkeys were watching bananas falling.

And this is what it sounded like-

Meow!! Roar!! Kaaa!! Oooo!! Oooo!! Ahh!! Wow!!

Its noisy in there!

Be warned you can go deaf in there

Enter at your own risk.

Happiness

Happiness is a seaside
And out in the hot sun
Happiness is ice-cream
Soft and whippy
Happiness is rocks
And shells-you can hear the sea!
Happiness is the sand
Sprinkling through your toes
Happiness is shovels
And buckets filled with crabs
Happiness is my family
And friends all together
Happiness is my favourite day at the beach.
